

Hi there,

When I saw your job post, I was ecstatic, like Woah! The perfect job! Time to write my cover letter, but then when I was reading what I wrote, I thought to myself man oh man, this is really dry and boring and overly generic.

So I decided to try something new. I won't do a cover letter explaining what I did, or what I can do, I mean, my resume pretty much describes everything about me already.

And, if you're still reading up to this point, I think it's safe to assume that I've already gotten your interest or attention. So, instead of sending you a standard and overly formal letter, I was thinking, how about a friendly chat or a Skype call to discuss your company and what I can contribute to its growth? My Skype ID is ima.villalva.

I am looking forward to hearing your ideas. Speak soon!

Best,
Ima
